Dear Author:

Welcome and congratulations on the first step to achieving the dream of having your book published. Today we received in our offices your signed contract.

You can expect several things to happen from this point. First, you can now register for our author message-board. Registration will give you full access and posting ability. We hope that you will join the community of writers that we have built in cyberspace. Additionally, you will have access to your own free webspace. We provide webspace to approximately 10,000 authors.

Second, we are currently sending out the next step in the production phase on your book. It's a standard form email, so please don't delete. It will be labeled "AUTHOR QUESTIONNAIRE" in the subject line. If it doesn't come through please let us know and we will try sending it again. Please note that the file is rather large. You may need to clear out space in your email box to make room for the delivery, especially if you are using a Yahoo, Hotmail or other web-based mail account. If you have retained the Sample Contract that we sent to you, it would be a good idea to save it to your computer and delete it from the mail, as it takes up a fair amount of space.

Your contact in our Pre-Production Team will be: Megan. Should you have any questions about this questionnaire, see our FAQ page at <http://www.publishamerica.com/AQ>.

Please expect to see your Author Questionnaire arrive from our Pre-Production Team shortly. Please send a message to your contact in the Pre-Production Department within 48 hours of this message to let them know whether you have received the Author Questionnaire or not.

Again, welcome to the beginning of a dream come true. If you have further questions at this point, please feel free to visit our website's support section: <http://www.publishamerica.com/support/>. It is my pleasure to add you to the PublishAmerica family.

Best Regards,

Megan Battista
