Dear Author,

Frame this: February is royalty month. Your next royalty statement is due in less than six weeks.

Receiving their royalty check is a high moment in every author's life, no matter the dollar amount. A moment worth framing.

We are offering to frame your next royalty check for you, in a distinguished, transparent 8x10 hard coated frame that "floats" the check between sheets of glass and plexiglass. You can hang it on your wall, stand it on your desk, or display it in any other way you want. For a sample see www.publishamerica.com/framedcheck. It looks beautiful!

Note: you will still receive a negotiable version of your check that you can deposit, ensuring that the framed copy is a keepsake forever.

Reserve your framed check today. Price: $19.95, plus s&h. Phone orders only, at 301 695-1707, between 9am - 5pm EST. Offer expires January 30.

This is also a reminder that it is the author's responsibility to ensure that PublishAmerica has your most recent mailing address and email address on file. When we prepare our roughly 30,000 statements next month, all checks will go to the addresses that we have on file by January 31. If you need to update yours, please do so before the end of next week by email at support@publishamerica.com.

Checks will be mailed February 28; statements regarding titles that sold zero copies will be forwarded by email. Framed checks will ship together with statements and negotiable checks early March.

Thank you.
