RE: Publish America

Dear Mr. Davidson:

We have reviewed the facts stated in your complaint. Your complaint has been placed in our files and is a matter of public record.

The Consumer Protection Division generally handles complaints arising out of transactions between a consumer and a business. We sympathize with you in this situation but because your complaint involves a transaction between two business firms, we are unable to take further action.

It is our understanding, however, that the Better Business Bureau attempts to assist businesses in circumstances such as this. You may wish to contact that organization or to discuss this matter with your private attorney to determine what course of action you wish to pursue.

Thank you for taking the time to express your concerns and interest.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Larry E. Munson", written over a horizontal line.

Larry E. Munson
