PublishAmerica Presents The Eternal Perspective by Don Davidson

Frederick, MD January 4, 2008 -- PublishAmerica is proud to present The Eternal Perspective: Essays on the Truths of Christianity by a Former Skeptic by Don Davidson of

The Eternal Perspective: Essays on the Truths of Christianity by a Former Skeptic is the book that answers the really tough questions that Christians face:

How can we know that Christianity is really true?
If God just wants us to “believe” in Him, why doesn’t He show Himself?
Would a loving God really torture people in Hell for all eternity?
Why isn’t Islam a viable and credible religious alternative to Christianity?
Why do bad things happen?
Why is arrogant pride the most dangerous and destructive sin of all?

In eight essays, Don Davidson shares his knowledge of the Scriptures, analyzed with a lawyer’s attention to detail, and written with a deep understanding of God’s perspective: The Eternal Perspective.

The son of agnostic parents, Don found Christ at the age of twenty. He has been a practicing attorney for almost thirty years, and is also a happily married husband, father of two, devout Christian, and avid student of the Bible.

PublishAmerica is the home of 25,000 talented authors. PublishAmerica is a traditional publishing company whose primary goal is to encourage and promote the works of new, previously undiscovered writers. Like more mainstream publishers, PublishAmerica pays its authors advances and royalties, makes its books available in both the United States and Europe through all bookstores, and never charges any fees for its services. PublishAmerica offers a distinctly personal, supportive alternative to vanity presses and less accessible publishers.
